The "Yes I Can - Achieve the Dream"
Honorable Wilma J. Webb, Seed Scholarship

Deadline for all applications: Monday, April 28, 2014 (5:00p.m.)
Students must be available,* Tuesday, May 6, 2014, *after 3:00 p.m. for interviews.

This is a scholarship sponsored by the Dr. MLK Colorado Holiday Commission for a deserving Colorado High School Senior that has at times struggled academically, yet has demonstrated tremendous capacity and potential to succeed. Students must be actively engaged in community service; be in good standing at their High School and have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0 and not exceed 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Two letters of recommendation are required, with one from a current or prior educator and one from a community service organization. An official transcript must be submitted with application. {Please note: GPA's exceeding 3.0 are not likely to be considered, based on this scholarship criteria.}

Students must register and attend the "I am Man, I am Woman, We are People, Youth Leadership Conference" on Saturday, May 3, 2014 in order to participate in the Seed Scholarship Program; as well as provide confirmation of acceptance to your planned College/University or Institution to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Colorado Holiday Commission.
