Gala/ Banquet
WAPC Awards Banquet, Silent Auction Donor Form

Greetings,

On Saturday, May, 3rd 2014, the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Colorado Holiday Commission invited 300 High School students from Colorado's public, private and charter schools to participate in an all-day educational conference. A major component of this conference was an essay, speech and debate contest which focused on the six principles of non-violence developed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Dr. King's Nobel Peace Prize acceptance speech and the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The winners of the above competitions along with eight scholarship winners will be awarded at our fundraising banquet, which will be held at the Renaissance Denver Hotel on June 22, 2014. As such, the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Colorado Holiday Commission is looking for silent auction items to be donated. The funds raised will be used to subsidize our year round educational programs, events and scholarships.

Please send the below link to individuals or businesses who may be interested in donating an auction item.
